By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN
Associated Press Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Motorists traveling the nation's main highways will see more natural beauty and fewer billboards in the years ahead.

The Federal Highway Administration has approved outdoor advertising control legislation adopted in 10 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

It has signed interim agreements with five other states that have passed laws which meet most of the federal requirements. Several other states are considering legislation to clear their highway areas of unsightly or view-obstructing billboards.

The agreements set up precise standards governing the position, size, spacing, zoning and lighting of billboards along interstate and primary road systems.

A major impetus for highway view preservation is the 1965 federal Highway Beautification Act providing for billboard controls, screening of roadside junkyards and landscaping.

Under this legislation, non-complying states are threatened with a loss of 10 per cent of federal highway funds contributed toward both interstate and primary highway systems.

The deadline for compliance was Jan. 1, but Alan S. Boyd, secretary of the Department of Transportation, said no penalties will be applied this year.

Jurisdictions which have complied with federal requirements are Maryland, Alaska, California, Connecticut, Vermont, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, Kentucky, Rhode Island, Utah, Virginia and Hawaii.

New York, Maine, Minnesota, Delaware and Pennsylvania have signed interim agreements with the Federal Highway Administration.

Opposition to billboard control has come principally from tourist-oriented towns, such as roadside business interests as hotel, motel and restaurant owners, and, in some states, outdoor advertising companies.

Garden clubs and conservationists have been avid supporters.

A nationwide survey made by The Associated Press showed that virtually all states maintain some control over highway billboard displays.

Highway department spokesmen in the majority of states which have not yet complied with federal specifications prefer some control over highway billboard displays.

Says Escapes Are Due to Uneasiness

TUCKER PRISON FARM. Ark. (AP)—With half of the recent escapes back in custody, a Tucker Prison Farm source suggested Thursday night that the rash of flights from prison is due to uneasiness about the change in administrations.

"Anytime there's a change at the top the boys get uneasy," said the source, who asked that his name not be used.

"Nobody knows which way things are going to go, what sort of changes are going to be made," he said.

Six prisoners have escaped from the Tucker unit in the past five days. One, 30-year-old Jesse Ring, who was serving a 21-year sentence from Sharp and Jefferson counties for second-degree murder, turned himself over to prison authorities at the request of his family.

Two more prisoners escaped Thursday, but, after an all-day manhunt, they were apprehended in a wooded, swampy area about three miles south of Humphrey on the Jefferson-Arkansas county line.

They were Lonnie Deeds, 20, serving five years from Yell County for burglary and grand larceny, and Norman Gilmore, 22, serving five years from Franklin County for burglary, grand larceny, possession of stolen property and jailbreak.

Deeds and Gilmore fled the prison a day after the State Board of Correction announced that, for the next four months, the emphasis at the Tucker unit would be more on farm work than on education.

The board was acting after legislative criticism of the prison for failing to be self-supporting financially.

The Tucker source said prisoners were "nervous, kind of in flux," because of the change of administrators. William H. Barker became head of the Tucker operation two weeks ago.

The prison unit has 285 inmates and a security force of 12 guards, prison officials said.

"Not many get away around the buildings, where the guard towers are," a prison spokesman said. "Most of them run off from details scattered around the fields."

Ed Walker, head of security at Cummins, was asked why there had been no escapes from his unit of the prison system recently and he answered, "I'd credit the security work we do here."

Then he laughed and added, "Naturally, I'd pat myself on the back."

Cummins has a security force of 18 to guard about 1,250 convicts.

Woman Aids Prisoner She Helped Convict

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — One day soon, Charles Edward Dillard will be released from prison at the age of 18, a life sentence no longer a threat to his future. He can thank Mrs. Alan J. Rost, who helped send him to prison.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller announced Thursday that he had pardoned Dillard, who was convicted in May 1967 of raping a divorcee three months earlier.

Dillard maintained throughout his trial that he was innocent, but his Circuit Court jury found him guilty and a life sentence was imposed.

Mrs. Rost of Little Rock had a hand in convicting him, as a member of the jury, but later, with her conscience nagging her, she led the way in setting him free.

"Oh, this is delightful," she said Thursday night when told that Dillard would be released from prison. "I feel like a great burden has been lifted from my shoulders."

The burden was the feeling that she had helped convict an innocent man, she said.

The case began in February 1967 when a 21-year-old woman claimed that Dillard, then 17, had raped her beneath a bridge in North Little Rock, where he lived.

A rape charge was filed against him.

At the pretrial hearing, the judge decided there was sufficient evidence to warrant holding Dillard for trial, but he noted that he "would hate to be the prosecutor" with evidence of questionable quality, according to Bob Scott, prison affairs aide to Rockefeller.

Mrs. Rost recalls that when the first jury vote was taken, it was 8-4 in favor of acquittal. The deliberations dragged on. One by one jurors switched positions and the count against Dillard mounted.

"Another person and I were the last to relent," she said. "My husband was in the hospital, I was tired, I know I shouldn't have given in, but I did."

But it was only a temporary concession. After Dillard began serving the life term at Cummins Prison Farm, she wrote and urged Rockefeller to pardon him.

She combed her memory for the names of other jurors, contacted three of them and asked them to help her get Dillard freed, if they also possessed doubts about whether he was guilty.

prevails over the rest of the year, the overall war total could hit 255,769 casualties by the end of 1968.

The count of Americans killed in combat has averaged 379 a week this year, dropping as low as 184 at the start and soaring as high as 562 in early May.

Projecting the 379 a week average over the entire year would boost battle deaths in the Vietnam war to 35,730—more than 2,000 above the Korean War's 33,629 killed in combat.

The cost in hospitalized wounded has averaged out to 1,198—U.S. servicemen a week so far this year. Extending this over the full year, as in the case of the combat dead, would bring the war total of such wounded to 115,284. That would be 12,000 more than the 103,284 in the Korean War.

The Pentagon contends it is misleading to try to compare total Vietnam casualties with those reported in other wars.

This, officials say, is because the Vietnam reports include figures for wounded not requiring hospital care. No such statistics were kept in earlier wars, the Pentagon says. The 72,431 total of nonhospital wounds in the Vietnam war as of June 8 represents a significant portion of the 177,716 over-all U.S. casualties recorded to that date.

Such lesser wounds, the Pentagon says, include cuts, bruises, abrasions and the like. Treatment involves application of antiseptics or antibiotics and bandaging, if necessary.

Often, officials say, men go back to their duties immediately after being treated, and thus cannot be counted as losses.

However, some comparisons are possible by limiting them to certain statistics kept in all wars—battle deaths and hospital wounds.

By this standard, 1968 almost certainly will eclipse the most costly full year of the Korean War, 1951, when 11,358 Americans were killed and 43,576 wounded.

The toll this year already is 8,722 killed in combat and 27,553 sent to hospitals—with 1968 not even half finished.

By any measure, the Vietnam war's cost in killed and wounded pales against the staggering bill for World War II—291,557 Americans killed in battle and 670,846 wounded. Nonbattle deaths totaled 113,842.

Letters Urge Stronger Gun Regulations

By G.C. THELEN JR.
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A deluge of letters, telegrams and telephone calls urging stronger federal gun-control laws has descended on Congress since the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The tide of messages is heaviest from urban areas, according to an Associated Press survey of 90 Congress members from representative districts. But mail from rural areas, especially in the East and Midwest, is also registering a shift in favor of stronger gun curbs.

The rural South and Southwest are generating more demands for firearms control, as is the hunting country of the Rocky Mountain states.

Congress has passed legislation curbing the mail-order sale of handguns. President Johnson, who wants the ban extended to rifles and shotguns, has not signed it.

Varying bills for stronger gun legislation have been proposed since the assassination. They include Johnson's request for rifles and shotguns and compulsory registration and licensing of all firearms.

Sen. Harris A. Williams Jr., D-N.J., has received over 6,000 letters since Monday favoring tougher gun measures. Half enclose a newspaper advertisement placed by a Newark jeweler and addressed to Williams.

"We beg you to pass strong interstate gun laws now," the ads say.

Several congressional aides sounded cautionary notes on the flood of gun control mail.

"The question in my mind is how long this is going to keep up and will people forget as soon as the Kennedy assassination is out of the headlines," said one.

"Just wait for the inflow of mail opposed to gun laws once the sportsmen's and hunters' groups have a chance to meet," said another.

The mail from some rural areas indicates a turnabout from strong opposition to gun curbs to at least mild approval.

Reps. Robert T. Stafford, R-Vt., and William D. Hathway, D-Maine, say the shift is marked in northern New England.

Rep. Watkins M. Abbott, D-Va., and W. S. Stuckey, D-Ga., say letters on gun control from their rural constituents have shifted from total opposition to about 50 per cent approval.

The response from rural areas of South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas has been minimal, congressmen say.

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., quoted a letter from Marengo, Ind., as an example of the 1,000 he has received. "Every type of firearm should be registered as are automobiles. There should be severe penalties for those who don't comply."

Gun-control sentiment in the West also shows signs of shifting.

New Mexico and Nevada members of Congress report a surprisingly even split on the issue among letter writers.

Sen. Peter H. Dominick, R-Colo., says the 400 letters on the subject he has received favor firearm controls by about two or three to one.

IS NURSE SPY EMPLOYED BY DOCTOR'S WIFE

Dear Helen: Why don't nurses employed in doctors' offices mind their own business? Instead they pry into certain patient's phone calls. If I call my doctor more than once a week his nurse acts suspicious. She always reminds me that I only talked to him a few days ago.

It's none of a nurse's business whether her employer has a crush on his patient or is dating her. This is the doctor's personal life.

If you'll notice, most office nurses are old these days. I get the impression they are spies employed by the doctor's wife. And they're altogether too snoop. Sometimes this dame not only won't put me through to my doctor, but I know she falls to give him my message to call later. - ANNOYED

Dear Annoyed: An unwritten qualification for a good office nurse is: Ability to recognize a lovesick female when she hears one and protect the doctor from same whenever possible. She isn't his wife's spy, but a visible shield for a very busy man, and believe me, he's grateful! - H

Dear Helen: In all the years I've been reading HHU I've never seen a problem like mine. I drive with both feet - in an automatic shift car. Does this make me some kind of odd ball? Others seem to drive with one foot for both brake and gas pedal. - LADY DRIVER

Dear Lady: You are a safety hazard! Re-train your right foot to take over what the left is doing. Otherwise, in a crisis, you might hit both pedals at once. - H

Dear Helen: You sounded skeptical about the letter from the twin sister, but being a mother of identical twin boys I know how well a substitute can be made with nobody the wiser.

When our twins attended City College, they rented an apartment together. I visited in the same town, so stayed with them. It was then I discovered the more scholarly boy was taking psychology twice - once for himself and, at a free period, once for his brother.

Tigers Keep Rolling to Up Lead

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Sudden Sam McDowell had Oakland batters in a hole most of the day but when Chico Salomon found a divot of his own, it was the Indians who fell in it.

McDowell's superb pitching performance was spotted when Salmon stepped into a hole and fell down chasing Sal Bando's hit in the 11th inning, allowing Danny Cater to score the only run in Oakland's 1-0 victory over Cleveland Thursday.

In the only other American League games played, Detroit topped Minnesota 3-1 and California took Boston 4-2. The Angels and Red Sox were tied 1-1 in the sixth inning when the second game of their doubleheader was suspended so California could catch a plane.

In the National League, Chicago took Cincinnati 8-4, Pittsburgh beat San Francisco 8-7, Philadelphia edged Houston 3-2 and St. Louis downed Atlanta 3-1 in 12 innings.

McDowell had allowed just two hits through the first 10 innings—none until the seventh. Bert Campaneris opened the 11th with a single but was cut down stealing. Then, with two out, Cater beat out an infield hit.

Next Bando looped a hit to left field. As Salmon started after the ball, his knee appeared to lock and he fell down. Cater scored on the play and Bando was credited with a double.

"I must have stepped in a hole or something," said Salmon. "All I know is I stepped and it (his left knee) twisted over. I couldn't get up."

Salmon, whose injury was diagnosed as a sprained knee, was taken to Shaker Medical Center for observation.

Denny McLain won his 10th game for Detroit, throwing a six-hitter that completed a four-game sweep for the Tigers over the Twins. Detroit has won nine of the last 10 games and Minnesota has dropped six straight.

Singles by Dick McAuliffe, Bill Freehan and Don Wert sandwiched around an error by Jack Hernandez gave the Tigers two runs in the third inning. Detroit scored again in the fifth on Mickey Stanley's single a sacrifice and Freehan's second hit.

California rallied for three runs in the eighth inning, with Bubba Morton's pinch single the key blow, and defeated Boston in the opener of their doubleheader.

Rick Reichardt started the winning rally by drawing a walk against reliever Jim Lonborg, Jimmie Hall bunted safely and Bobby Knoop nicked reliever Sparky Lyle for a single that tied the score. Then Morton's hit delivered Hall with the lead run and Jim Fregosi singled another across before the inning was over.

Paul Schaal, an Angel infielder, suffered a hairline skull fracture when hit by a pitch thrown by Jose Santiago. Schaal, who did not lose consciousness, was taken to Santa Maria Hospital and held for observation.

Santo's homer started the scoring in the second and Don Kessinger singled two runs across. Santo's triple preceded Banks' third-inning homer, the 454th of his career.

19-Year-Old Carries the U.S. Hopes

NEWCASTLE, England (AP) — Shelly Hamlin, a 19-year-old from Fresno, Calif., and Ors, Ann Welts, three-time A.S. Amateur champion from Mount Vernon, Wash., carried American hopes today in the first match of the 15th Curtis Cup golf competition against Britain.

Miss Hamlin and Mrs. Welts teed off against Mrs. Belle Robertson and Ann Irvin—the first of three foursomes in which players strike the ball alternately over the 6,535-yard Royal

Unknown in Limelight in U.S. Open

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Bert Yancey had the lead and Lee Trevino had the limelight. But it was an unknown little guy named John Felus who had the limelight in the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

The glamor names of the game, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Bill Casper—particularly Billy Casper—and Gary Player, were limited to lamentations.

The handsome, husky Yancey, former West Point cadet, tamed the demanding acres of Oak Hill's tree-studded course for a three-under-par 67 in the first round Thursday and a two-stroke lead over Trevino, the happy hombre from El Paso, Tex., and big Charles Coody.

But it was the 5-foot-3 Felus, a notably unsuccessful, untamed and obscure touring pro who had the gallery of 13,749 gaping, gawking and wondering aloud: "Who's he?"

He's a 32-year-old pint-sized guy from Pennsylvania's soft coal country, describes his home town of Gallitzin, Pa., as being "near Altoona," and in three years on the tour has made less than tip money.

But, for a few moments in the early going Thursday, he was leading this most prestigious of all the world's golf tournaments with a par 70 for the 6,962-yard layout and still remains tied for fourth going into today's second round.

Also in with 70s are Billy Farrell, son of the man who won the Open in 1928, Canadian Al Balding, Dave Marr, Don Bles and Labron Harris.

Casper, winner of four tournaments this season and almost $125,000 and the pre-tournament favorite, wrenched his back when he slipped in a sand trap, finished with a 75 and is a questionable performer in the second round.

Nicklaus, the defending champion, had a 72, Palmer came in with a 73 and Player stumbled in with a 76 and could be in danger of not making the cut.

The final two rounds Saturday and Sunday will be televised nationally by ABC-TV.

Player had two double bogeys in his round, and stomped off the course, first to the putting green then for a long session on the practice tee.

The rock-steady Yancey got into the wiry, entangling rough only once, on the 16th, but came out of that to the green and canned a birdie. He finished with a 25-foot curling birdie putt on 18, had two other birds and a single bogey.

Trevino, a Mexican-American who made his debut on the pro tour in the 1967 Open—when he finished in the top 10 and launched his career with his $6,000 earnings—was his usual jovial self.

"When I came to the Open last year I had $600 in my pocket—all the money I had in the world—and a job at $30 a week as an assistant pro at Horizon Hills.

"Since then I've won $90,000 and own the club."

Coody, a strapping Texan who is tied with Trevino for second, had a mildly scrappy round with four birds and three bogeys, saving his spot in second place with a birdie on the last hole.

Sam Snead, at 56 still looking for his first Open title, had a 73.

San Diego in Agreement on Stadium

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The City of San Diego and owners of the new National League baseball franchise apparently have reached agreement on terms for rental of the San Diego Stadium.

"We have reached what appears to be a mutually satisfactory formula for an agreement to provide stadium occupancy by the San Diego baseball club," said City Manager Walter Hahn Thursday after extensive negotiations with the franchise owners.

Hahn earlier said he had received a letter in which the owners of the franchise threatened to decline the invitation to join the league unless the city accepted their terms for rental of the stadium.

The terms offered by the club called for payment to the city only after the yearly attendance passed one million. The club would pay the city $1.35 for each person attending after the one million mark was reached.

Hahn declined to comment on details of the tentative agreement.

Wives Say Golf Not Fun Any More

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — "Golf has changed so much and gotten so big, it's not much fun to try to follow the players any more," said Winnie Palmer.

"The crowds are so large it's almost impossible to see a shot. When you try, you can almost get stamped in the rush."

Winnie Palmer, wife of the richest and most popular of the tournament golfers, is about ready to become a watcher instead of a player.

Watchers and waiters—these are the two categories of the tournament golfers, who follow the sun and make the globe their beat in search of the millions in prizes.

The best of them currently are playing for the $30,000 top purse and other prizes in the $190,000 U.S. Open at the Oak Hill Country Club.

It's a glamorous life, almost all of the wives admit, but it's one that can have its frustrations and its problems.

"I could begin new tomorrow I wouldn't change a thing," said pretty Jeanne Ruth Welskopf.

Jeanne is definitely a walker and a watcher. She agonizes as she peeps through masses of humanity to try to follow her tall, handsome husband, Tom Welskopf, one of the new stars of the tour.

Jeanne was formerly Miss Minnesota, a contestant in the Miss America contest. She and Tom have been married two years and the bloom of the golf tour is fresh and new.

"I really die out there when Tom is playing, but I wouldn't miss it for the world," said the striking, brown-eyed brunette.

Barbara Nicklaus, mother of Jack's three small children, like Winnie Palmer has become a blase follower.

"I don't get to go with Jack as much as I used to on account of the children," says Barbara, a college sweetheart of the big better from Columbus.

"Oh, sure, I hear people make remarks in the gallery, I let it go in one ear and out the other."

Army Revokes Orders for Player

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Army has revoked orders for catcher Larry Haney of the Baltimore Orioles to report to active duty June 22.

However, Haney said Thursday the telegram said only that the revocation was "pending assignment to a unit." It did not indicate where or when he might be advised to report.

Tennessean Winner of Senior Meet

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — After trailing through almost all of the tournament, Mack Brothers of Nashville, Tenn., coolly dropped an eight-foot putt on the last hole Thursday and emerged the victor in the Western Seniors golf tournament.

His comeback put Bud McKinney of Dallas, Tex., front-runner through all but the last two holes of the competition, in second place. McKinney three-putted from 20 feet on the last hole.

Brothers' 54-hole total on the par 72 course was 223, with rounds of 76, 72 and 75. McKinney had rounds of 71, 74 and 70.

Rookie Hurls Travelers to Victory

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The way young Jerry Reuss started leaves just one question unanswered: Did he save anything for the finish?

The tall left-hander made his first Texas League start Thursday night and hurled a two-hitter, leading the Arkansas Travelers to a 3-0 victory over Amarillo.

Reuss, who had just finished his freshman year at Southern Illinois University, got three-run support in the first inning and coasted home.

Billy Wolff drew a walk. Boots Day was safe on an error. Leroy Lee walked, and Wolff scored on a wild pitch for the first Arkansas run.

Mike Christino singled to right to score Day, then Lee scored on a bad throw from the outfield.

Hal Jenkoat Jr. took the loss, going seven innings and allowing only five hits.

Schaal Latest Victim of the Bean Ball

By LARRY ELDRIDGE
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Paul Schaal, hospitalized with a hairline skull fracture and placed on the disabled list, is the latest victim in baseball's growing list of beanings this season.

The California Angels' third baseman was hit in the head by one of Jose Santiago's pitches in the fourth inning of Thursday's first game with the Boston Red Sox.

The impact could be heard in the press box as Schaal's batting helmet flew off and he dropped to the ground flat on his back. For a few stunned moments observers feared a nightmarish repetition of the similar tragedy which apparently ended Tony Conigliaro's career in a game between the same teams here last August.

Schaal lay motionless on the ground, though it was learned later that he never lost consciousness. He was carried from the field on a stretcher and taken to Santa Maria Hospital in nearby Cambridge.

Red Sox team physician Dr. Thomas Tierney, who accompanied Schaal to the hospital along with Angels' coach Oickey McDermott, said the pitch apparently hit Schaal just below the helmet. He said the X rays showed a hairline fracture behind the left mastoid bone.

Tierney said Schaal would be kept at the hospital for further tests, but that no special treatment is indicated as necessary right now.

"The pitch just got away from me," Santiago said, adding that he was going over to the hospital to see the Angels' third baseman.

"I don't like to throw close to anybody," said the Red Sox right-hander, who hit only three batters all last season.

Two Amateurs Beat the Pros

BECKENHAM, England (AP) — Amateurs Maria Bueno of Brazil and Margaret Smith Court of Australia defeated professionals Thursday and reached the semifinals of the Kent Lawn Tennis Championships.

The 3-year-olds are slated to go in the 1½ mile Cinema Handicap over the grass at Hollywood Park, and the older horses will compete for 1½-mile over Belmont Park's turf course in the Bowling Green Handicap. Each is a $50,000-added test.

Proper Proof, the California Derby winner and an also-ran in the Kentucky Derby, heads a field of eight to 10 probabilities in the Cinema Handicap. Mrs. Montgomery Fisher's gray colt has been assigned the high weight of 123 pounds.

High weight of 128 pounds in the Bowling Green has been given to Mrs. Wallace Gilroy's High Hat.

Sox Trade Snyder to Cleveland

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox traded outfielder Russ Snyder to the Cleveland Indians Thursday for outfielder Leon Wagner.

Miss Larson of Rohrer (Desha County) was headed for defeat, Miss Filppin rolled in a 20-foot birdie putt on the 15th hole to take a 1-up lead after being 1-down for nine holes.

But Miss Larson dropped in a two-foot putt for a birdie on the next hole, then took a 1-up lead when Miss Filppin missed the green on the par three 17th. Both bogeyed the final hole.

Publicity, Timing Hurt Montreal

MONTREAL (AP) — Lack of time and bad publicity are plaguing Montreal's fledgling baseball entry in the National League, says J. Louis Levesque, chairman of the board for the team.

"Frankly, it's going to be a gigantic task to open on the projected 1969 date, but we're certainly going to try," he said Thursday.

Lucien Saulaler, chairman of Montreal's executive committee, has said "it is necessary to proceed with a lot of care" in constructing a domed stadium in East End Montreal.

One of the big problems for which Levesque doesn't yet have the answer is the planned renovation of Montreal's Autostade, a 25,000 seat oval built for Expo 67, where the still-not-formed team is scheduled to play its first two seasons.

The Autostade is to be enlarged to 40,000 seats and work should have already started to meet the April, 1969, deadline.

Two Hockey League Vets to New Teams

MONTREAL (AP)—Two veteran National Hockey League players moved to new teams as the NHL completed its annual summer meetings here Thursday.

The New York Rangers sent left wing Camille Henry, 35, to St. Louis in a five-player trade. Moving to the Blues with Henry are goalie Robbie Irons and defenseman Bill Plager.

In return, the Rangers acquired goalie Don Caley and right winger Wayne Rivers. Both played at Kansas City in the Central League last year.

Allan Stanley, a defenseman who had played 20 NHL seasons, was drafted from Toronto by the Quebec Aces of the American League, one of 18 players drafted by AHL and Western League teams from the NHL at $15,000 per man in the reverse draft.

Del Shofner Retires From Pro Football

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Del Shofner, who holds New York Giants' records for most pass receptions in a season, has retired from professional football.

The veteran receiver announced his retirement Thursday in a phone call from his California home to Wellington Mara, president of the National Football League club.

Shofner set a club record for most catches in a season, 68, in 1961.

Life of Child in Chest of Another

HERMISTON, Ore. (AP) — The life of 7-year-old Rebecca "Becky" Howland is in some other child's chest.

Becky needs a heart transplant to stay alive.

She returned to this northeastern Oregon community Tuesday from an examination by Dr. Norman Shumway at Stanford University in Palo Alto, Calif.

Shumway said after the examination of a suitable donor is found Becky will be considered for a heart transplant. Shumway has performed two transplants. The patients died from other complications.

He said the search for a suitable heart for Becky would be difficult because she is a young child requiring a smaller heart than adults.

Dr. John Bussman, a Portland, Ore., heart specialist, says the girl has a left heart ventricle which doesn't function properly.

Bussman, a classmate of Shumway at the University of Minnesota Medical School, said Becky might have a growth in that part of the heart chamber or might have a large blood clot.

When Shumway gets a suitable heart, he will notify the Howlands.

"We're all packed and ready to go," Becky's father, Elton Howland, said Thursday.

The Howlands do not have any other children. Becky is a pretty child, with shoulder-length light brown hair and a big grin which reveals she is missing her two front teeth.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The saguaro cactus, largest of all cacti in the United States, ranges from 10 to 50 feet in height and weighs up to 10 tons. The World Almanac says. The pulpy tissues of the saguaro absorb and store as much as a ton of rainwater at one time. This hardy cactus can survive for three years without a drop of rain. Some specimens have a life span of two centuries.

Drug Treatment of Gout Requires Continuance
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—I have taken colchicine, Benemid and cortisone for my gout. These drugs caused a stomach ulcer. Would allopurinol be better? Would it cause any bad side effects?

A—Although colchicine and probenecid (Benemid) may cause severe nausea, they do not cause peptic ulcers but the cortisone may do so. Colchicine must be given at the start of a course of allopurinol because early in the course of this treatment there is a tendency toward acute attacks of gout. This valuable drug should be taken under close medical supervision and should not be taken by anyone who has liver damage.

Here is a hand from back in the early 1930s. West was the late Louis Watson. Louis died when only 29, but he had already established himself as one of the great players of all time. He was also noted for his general mild manner and kind treatment of his partners.

East really should have opened the bidding with one heart, but the chances are that South would still have wound up playing in two no-trump.

Watson who sat West opened his ten of hearts. South took the trick with the jack and led a diamond. East was in with the king and proceeded to lead a second heart. South won that and knocked out East's ace of diamonds. At this point East returned the queen of clubs, but it was one time too late. Declarer wound up by making his contract with two overtricks.

It took great restraint on Louis' part to refrain from pointing out that if East had given up the heart suit and shifted to a club when he first got in, that South would have gone down one instead of making two overtricks, but, as stated before, Louis was one of the mildest of all experts and never criticized his partners.

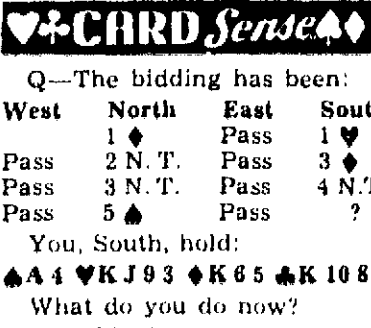

East wasn't quite that mild. He pointed out that if Louis had just opened a club they would have beaten the contract and asked Louis why he did not open his good suit.

This was too much for even the mild-mannered Louis. He replied, "Yes, I might have. I also might have gone to a movie instead of coming to the club to play bridge. I also might have done a lot of other things that I have not done, but I am just silly enough to hope that sometime it will be right to open your suit. On the other hand, you knew that your heart suit was not going to come in. You were looking at dummy, and the only excuse you had for not leading a club the first time you got in must be that you want to lose."

Do unto others

- THE GOSPEL TRAIL

My "Pop"

... a grand guy in any language. A very special fellow at our house. Without him around night brings fright. But for him we couldn't eat as well, nor as much. He may be gruff at times; he may be firm when he disciplines. And we may answer "yessir" in agreement when he commands, but he is the very foundation of everything at our house.

It takes him to silence the doggie ... to persuade Jr. ... to laud sister's successes and to heap high praise on all the things mother does ... that's "My Pop". They possess rare qualities, these fathers. A good one is a source of joy to every child. Then on this Father's Day, let him have it right in the heart. Aim all the good things at him. Give him the treatment he so justly deserves and make him wish for another Father's Day very soon. Play with him but also pray with him. Be a worshiper with him at your church this week.

You in The Church
The Church in You
- form a combination
for good. Every man, woman and child needs
the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Miss Edna Middlebrooks, Little Rock, Miss Josie Anderson, and Miss Nannie Purkins, Hope. Other guests were: Mrs. Duval Purkins, Mrs. Roy Stephenson, Mrs. Paul A. Lewis, Mrs. James O. Murph, Mrs. Lloyd Coop, Mr. Ned Sayle, Mr. Fred Sole, Mr. R. E. Shelton, Mr. Frank Irwin, and Mr. S. L. Murphy. With husbands, wives, and teachers, the banquet was attended by 40.

A tribute by Lloyd Coop and a few moments of silence were observed in remembrance of deceased members: Margaret Arnold, Mary Bryant, Charles Mobley, Harry Queen, and Roy Stephenson. Correspondences from members unable to attend were read by Ada Huckabee Jones, Class Secretary. Auto-graphed copies of the program were sent to Miss Mable Ethridge, Mrs. Mary Eakin Dawson, and Miss Nina Knighton, teachers who were unable to attend.

After reminiscences and singing of World War One Songs, in a very clever manner Mamie Belle Holt awarded prizes to Susie Roberts Shelton, Midland, Texas, for the greatest distance traveled; Mary Carter Sole, the newest wedded; Tom and Kathleen McLarty, married the longest; Ruth Weaver Griffith, the most children; Florence Spragins Hyatt and Esther Hart Murphy tied for the most grandchildren; Marie LaGrone Gilliam, the most youthful looking and the greatest proponent of the miniskirt; and Lloyd Coop, the most successful in retaining his hair and the youngest member of the class. Two of the prizes were beautifully decorated bottles, a hobby of Hertha Bowden Kels-wetter, Brownsville, Tex.; and two were jeweled Christmas balls made by Jewell Wynn Talley, Beaumont, Texas.

Lloyd Coop presented Florence a special gift from the class for her untiring efforts in making the reunion a success.

The program for the evening closed with the re-reading of the valedictory address, which Florence Spragins had given 50 years ago.

On Sunday, 21 of the class that stayed over attended special services for them at the First Methodist Church, and ate lunch at the Town and Country Restaurant. After a visit to the Old Tavern and Mamie Belle Holt at Washington, the class disbanded with high hopes and plans for another reunion in five years.

Court Action Seeks Faster Integration

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Fifteen years after the U. S. Supreme Court struck down separate but equal schools in its famous desegregation ruling, the federal government is moving vigorously to apply the verdict in several Arkansas school districts.

Hot Springs got the word most recently when a review team from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare told the school board Thursday night the dual school system must be abolished by the fall of 1969.

The team made clear that it would like to see it happen by next September, but allowed the 1969 date in case administrative difficulties delay bringing about the eradication of the dual system.

Representatives of the department earlier made similar demands of the school boards at Malvern and Blytheville.

At Hot Springs, the board was told the district has not "successfully eliminated the racial identity" of three schools, and also has moved too slowly in desegregating school facilities.

The board was given until July 8 to submit a plan HEW considers better than the freedom-of-choice desegregation plan used during the past school term.

The review team pointed to all-Negro Goldstein Elementary School, Whittington Elementary School and Langston High School as examples of the failure of the Hot Springs freedom-of-choice plan.

Framing its ideas as suggestions, the team said one desirable step might be to limit transfers so a student could not move out of an area where his race was in the minority.

1966 LINCOLN CONTINENTAL

1968 LINCOLN CONTINENTAL

It takes a fine-car connoisseur to recognize the vintage

One reason is, Continental produces a vintage motorcar every year. Continental, each successive year, boasts the same dedication to engineering perfection, the same uncompromising attention to detail, the same credo of unmatched craftsmanship that has earned for Continental the right to be called "America's most distinguished motorcar."

Another reason is, Continental designers and engineers don't tear the car down and begin anew each year. They start with the finest car made in America and improve it, thus making every Continental purchase an investment of lasting value.

Improvements for 1968 include wraparound parking lights and taillights, new instrument panel, a smoother-shifting transmission, new interiors, and a new, more formal roof line for the Coupé.

Couple these improvements with Continental's timeless, classic design and the peerless quality of Continental's ride and performance and you have yet another vintage year for fine-car connoisseurs to savor.

Let us arrange a personal demonstration for you, during which you may become acquainted with the pleasure and prestige awaiting you behind the wheel of the 1968 Lincoln Continental.

Mrs. Johnson Opens Drive for Governor

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Virginia Johnson opened her campaign for governor Thursday by telling television voters that every housewife knows how to manage a budget prudently and she would do the same if elected.

"I propose to run your business on the money we have available," said the first housewife, and first woman, to seek the governorship of Arkansas. She also lambasted Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller for "the futile fumbling" of the past 18 months, and, dealing with the question of a woman being governor, she said, "What do you have to lose?"

Mrs. Johnson's husband, Jim, was the Democratic nominee for governor in 1966 when Rockefeller was elected. Johnson now seeks the party's nomination for the U.S. Senate seat held by J. William Fulbright. She said she had been asked if it would be a difficult adjustment for her to live in Little Rock, if she is elected governor, while her husband lives in Washington, D.C., if he is elected senator. Her answer, she said, was that she could make the adjustment because of a sense of duty.

Arkansas' No. 1 problem, she said, is to increase per capita income, a development she said could be achieved through a co-operative effort between private and public agencies. She also said the minimum grant for welfare recipients should be raised to $100 "as soon as that goal can be reached."

"The state can't stand two more years of the administration that set us back 20 years," Mrs. Johnson said of Rockefeller.

She pledged to "clean up the mess," set the moral tones, put the budget in order, begin "restoring confidence by the people in the ballot," and enforce the law impartially.

The Rockefeller administration, Mrs. Johnson said, has spent $40 million in state surplus funds.

"This could be a minus $80 million at the end of the second biennium," she said, decrying the "long shadow of gloom cast over the state" since Rockefeller took office.

In other developments Thursday, state Rep. Marion Crank of Foreman, who, like Mrs. Johnson, seeks the Democratic nomination for governor, said he would open a state campaign headquarters Sunday in Little Rock.

Most of the candidates are

On a Rainy Day Just Make List of Things That You Haven't Done

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — No one quite knows what to do on a rainy day.

Life seems to have loose ends. Children feel listless and unproductive. So do grownups, if the truth be told.

One of the ways to fill time on a rainy day is to take pen and paper and make a list of things you might have done in life but haven't.

It can be a revealing catalogue. For example, your list might reveal that you have yet to—

Beat a big bass drum in a parade.

Cry "Tar she blows!" at the sight of a surfacing whale.

Exchange bows with an emperor penguin.

Walk across America.

Win a Straw Vote.

Break the heart of a red-haired girl.

Understand a poem by Allen Ginsberg.

Plant an oak tree.

Keep curious strangers in the hotel room below awake all night by refusing to drop the other shoe.

Open a can of sardines and find a live one in the crowd.

Box a compass.

Paddle your own canoe in Venice.

Paint the town a real bright color.

So — if you've been wondering what to do, this is it. Bring a friend, a date, or just come alone and join the crowd.

U.S. Casualties in Vietnam Could Reach Million by Year's End

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Total U.S. Vietnam casualties, mounting relentlessly during the Paris talks, could top a quarter of a million by year's end unless there is a truce or peace.

American combat deaths and wounds serious enough to require hospital treatment could surge beyond the Korean War toll.

New Bans on Autobahn Expected

By HUBERT J. ERB

BERLIN (AP) — Traffic on the autobahn to West Berlin returned to normal during the night, but police predicted more tieups today because of East Germany's new restrictions.

West German Chancellor Kurt George Kiesinger, after talks in West Berlin Thursday with Mayor Klaus Schmeitz, called for a "serious counterreaction" from the United States, Britain and France.

The three Western allies have announced they would take the restrictions up with the Soviets but have given no indication of any other action. Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, gave full support to the East German action, foreshadowing a Soviet rebuff to the Western Powers.

Asked whether his government and the allies held different views on such countermeasures as curbing traffic with East Germany or restricting East German travel in Western countries, Kiesinger said: "The protective powers, believe that their own measures should be in connection with those we are prepared to take."

The chancellor did not specify what steps his government had in mind.

The new East German regulations on overland travel to West Berlin caused highway delays Thursday of up to five hours. The decrees require that West Germans and West Berliners pick up and pay for visas in order to travel to and from West Germany. They had previously been in a different category from foreigners and were only required to show their identity cards and a road fee.

Under the new setup, the East Germans also are demanding that West Germans produce passports by July 15. They also are going to levy increased taxes on commerce.

Just a few days earlier designer Rudi Gernreich told buyers at his fall knitwear collection that the skirt was dead. Despite efforts of others to resuscitate the romantic midi, the Californian insisted that clothes for men and women were now converging.

"It is the only practical thing for our contemporary way of life," said Gernreich, dressed in a belted tunic and belted trousers like those on his mannikins. Still the knitted costumes spelled out the difference in girls as significantly as a shrunken sweater.

Gernreich, lest it be forgotten, pioneered unisex fashions by introducing bathing trunks for women five years ago.

7 Killed in Minnesota Tornado

By HARL ANDERSEN

TRACY, Minn. (AP) — A tornado snapped through town with the sting of a big whip Thursday evening, killing seven persons and destroying and damaging more than 100 homes.

Authorities feared the death toll would climb today as rescue workers pulled apart the rubble of houses.

Spokesmen at the Tracy Hospital said seven bodies had been recovered. Victims included five women, a man and a girl aged 2.

Seventy-two patients were admitted and 22 remained overnight. Eleven were listed in critical condition.

The twister, powered two miles through this town of 2,800 in Minnesota's southwestern farmland. It ravaged a block-and-a-half wide path, then skirted into the countryside, clawing an occasional farm building before it dissipated five miles out of town.

Tracy was without electric power, water and phone service for several hours. The hospital was operating on emergency generators.

Water was brought by tank trucks from nearby Marshall and Clayton.

The death toll would probably have gone much higher if the town hadn't been warned by a farmer, who telephoned the volunteer fire department as the twister approached eight miles to the southwest. The town siren wailed in the early, eerie dusk.

Fire Chief Bernard Holm said, "This saved many, many lives." The farmer had phoned his alert at 6:55 p.m., seven minutes before the hospital clocks stopped, denoting power circuits were broken.

Girl Beside Slayer of Kennedy

By GENE HANDSAKER
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Twelve hours before Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's assassination, witnesses say, the accused man was rapid-firing the death weapon on a target range.

Other witnesses say three bullets hit Kennedy—not two, as previously reported—and that the killer stepped from beside a smiling, shapely mystery girl and fired his revolver with "a very sick-looking smile on his face."

These were highlights of testimony made public Thursday by the county grand jury which last Friday indicted Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, a 24-year-old Jordanian immigrant, for the murder. The transcript—258 double-spaced typewritten pages—became public when filed with the county clerk.

Twenty-two witnesses—Sirhan not among them—pictured the slaying scene of terror and hysteria and its aftermath: The kitchen area of the Ambassador Hotel jammed early June 5 with jubilant supporters escorting the New York senator and celebrating his victory in California's Democratic presi-

Enemy Rocket Attack on Saigon Just Might Wreck Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — A sustained Viet Cong rocket offensive against the heart of Saigon could wreck the Paris peace talks in short order, Western diplomats believe.

For that reason they think the Communists may not bombard the city as they have threatened to do.

U.S. officials said they hoped the North Vietnamese would give careful consideration to the warning issued by U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman to Ambassador Xuan Thuy of North Vietnam.

Harriman declared at the Wednesday session of the Paris talks with Thuy that terror attacks on Saigon "could have the most serious consequences for these talks."

U.S. officials declined to spell out exactly what Harriman meant because only President Johnson could decide to make a major change in U.S. military-diplomatic strategy.

But knowledgeable diplomats familiar with the U.S. view of the situation said many more rocket assaults like those earlier this week, when explosives rained on the center of the city, would force Johnson to consider retaliatory action against the North and suspension of the talks. Expanded bombing of the North by itself could provoke a North Vietnamese decision to suspend the talks.

American officials were reported uncertain about what action to expect from the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces in South Vietnam. Their heavy bombardment of the city early this week was not immediately followed by more massive blows, but the clandestine Communist radio in South Vietnam threatened that a 100-day bombardment would be started Monday.

U.S. officials in Saigon doubted that the Communists could maintain a heavy bombardment of the city over many days. But in the war-scarred city of three million people, thousands were packing sandbags to give themselves some protection.

In the air war against North Vietnam, U.S. pilots flew 136 missions Thursday against targets in the southern panhandle. Air Force pilots said they destroyed or damaged 13 sampans, nine trucks, seven anti-aircraft batteries, a locomotive and four rail cars. Navy fliers claimed they knocked out or damaged three bridges, three storage areas, four barges and a radar site.

B52 bombers returned Thursday to targets they had hit the day before, with five strikes against suspected enemy troop concentrations in the central highlands north of Kontum and the southern section of the demilitarized zone near Gio Linh.

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Most Michigan Democratic delegates who say they have made up their minds favor Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey as the party's presidential nominee, an Associated Press poll reveals.

But delegates are undecided as to what—if any—role Sen. Edward M. Kennedy should play at the August national convention in Chicago. Several delegates expressed hope that Kennedy would be the vice presidential nominee.

A total of 39 Michigan delegates said they would vote for Humphrey. Three said they supported Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota.

However, 36 delegates said they were undecided as to which candidate they would support. Some added that it was possible a man not currently viewed as a candidate could capture the nomination.

Cong Rocket Belt Combed by Allies

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. soldiers scouring Saigon's rocket belt Thursday found 32 enemy missiles and killed 20 guerrillas. But despite the 12,000 allied troops combed the area, the Viet Cong fired four rockets into Tan Son Nhut airbase, killing one American and damaging a plane.

Salmon itself escaped attack for the third straight day.

The biggest cache of rockets was found by men of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division six miles northeast of the capital. They uncovered and destroyed 22 rounds of 107mm Chinese rockets, which made their first appearance in the Vietnam war last February.

Troops of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division accounted for 10 of the big 122mm Soviet rockets with which the Viet Cong has been blasting at Saigon since May 5. Nine were found in four sampans submerged in a canal nine miles northwest of Saigon, and the 10th was located at a firing site five miles northwest of the capital.

The 26 guerrillas were killed in two clashes, and six U.S. soldiers were wounded.

In addition to the thousands of allied troops searching in radius of seven miles around the capital, the distance from which the big enemy rockets can hit the city, more radar equipment reportedly has been installed to pinpoint the enemy launching sites for counterfire.

While U.S. military officials believe they can reduce the rocket attacks on Saigon, they say there is no way to eliminate them. The Viet Cong always will be able to sneak a few men and rockets through the allied patrols, they say.

Although Saigon has now gone three days without being hit by either mortars or rockets, the Viet Cong has threatened to launch a new attack Monday. Broadcasts from the Viet Cong's Liberation Radio have said Saigon will be hit with 100-round barrages for 100 straight days.

Captured Viet Cong also have reported that the ground attack on the city will be renewed Saturday.

In the air war against North Vietnam, U.S. pilots flew 136 missions Thursday against targets in the southern panhandle. Air Force pilots said they destroyed or damaged 13 sampans, nine trucks, seven anti-aircraft batteries, a locomotive and four rail cars. Navy fliers claimed they knocked out or damaged three bridges, three storage areas, four barges and a radar site.

B52 bombers returned Thursday to targets they had hit the day before, with five strikes against suspected enemy troop concentrations in the central highlands north of Kontum and the southern section of the demilitarized zone near Gio Linh.
